Application/Control Number: 10/663,919 Page 2

Art Unit: 3635

1. This is a first Office action on the merits for application serial number 10/663,919 filed 09/16/03. Claims 1-17 are pending.

- 2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:
 - (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.
- 3. Claims 1-4 and 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Application Publication 2003/0204908 to Figler in view of U.S. Patent 5,203,042 to Mason.

Figler provides a device comprised of a frameless floor 50 and a movable flap 52 which can open or close to enclose a hunter. When in an at least a partially zipped or closed position the lower portion forms an enclosed foot sack. A removable inflatable head rest 70 is further provided.

Figler fails to provide a collapsible foot sack support adapted to keep the foot sack opening clear of a hunter's legs.

Mason teaches that at the time of the invention it was known to use cover lift apparatus comprised of a horizontal bar 17/18, depending vertical legs 13 and feet 15 to support a cover in spaced relationship above a user's feet.

Application/Control Number: 10/663,919

Art Unit: 3635

It would have been obvious at the time of the invention to one having ordinary skill in the art that the lift apparatus of Mason could have been used with the sleeping bag of Figler so as to create a space above a user's feet and legs. It further would have been obvious at the time of the invention to one having ordinary skill in the art that the top horizontal bar 17/18 of Mason could have been formed as a single piece as it would be unnecessary for the device of Mason to be adjusted when used with Figler. The device of Mason could pivot about the foot sack opening to the same extent as disclosed by applicant's support. Pivoting the device of Mason would alter the spacing of the foot sack opening.

4. Claims 5, 6 and 10-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent Application Publication 2003/0204908 to Figler as modified by U.S. Patent 5,203,042 to Mason above further in view of U.S. Patent 4,862,533 to Adams.

Figler as modified by Mason above provides each of the elements of these claims except for a removable cushion positionable upon the floor of Figler.

Adams teaches that at the time of the invention it was known to provide removable cushions 20 on floors 12 of sleeping bags.

It would have been obvious at the time of the invention to one having ordinary skill in the art that a removable cushion as taught by Adams at 20 could have been provided on the floor 50 of Figler to provide padding and comfort for a user.

- 5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
- 6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Robert J. Canfield whose telephone number is 571-272-6840. The examiner can normally be reached on M-Th.
